Domain Registration Criteria

Refer to the following checklist to ensure that your chosen domain name complies with requirements:

For .com, .net and .org registrations (individual and corporate):

- The domain name must contain only alpha-numeric characters (a-z, 0-9) and hyphens (-).
- The name must begin with a letter or number and cannot end with a hyphen (-).
- The total length of the domain name (including the extension and the individual ".") must be no longer than 67 characters.

For .com.my and .com.sg registrations (corporate only):

- The domain name must contain only alpha-numeric characters (a-z, 0-9) and hyphens (-).
- The name must begin with a letter or number and cannot end with a hyphen (-).
- For .com.my, the total length of the domain name (including the extension and the individual ".") must be no longer than 50 characters.
- For .com.sg, the total length of the domain name (including the extension and the individual ".") must be no longer than 67 characters.

For .biz and .info registrations:

The total length of the domain name must be no shorter than 3 characters and no longer than 63 characters.

For .com.cn, .net.cn and .org.cn registrations:

- Any business or organization, worldwide, can register a .CN name under a new liberalized policy that no longer restricts .CN registrations to Chinese entities.
- Individuals are not allowed to register .CN.
- A company or organization do not need to have a subsidiary in China in order to acquire a .CN name.
- .CN domain names available to registrars for term lengths between one (1) and five (5) years.

For .hk registrations (individual and corporate):

- The domain name must contain only alpha-numeric characters (a-z, 0-9) and hyphens (-).
- The name must begin with a letter or number and cannot end with a hyphen (-).
- The total length of the domain name (including the extension and the individual ".") must be within 6-63 characters.
- Free Net will submit your domain name to Registry upon receiving your payment. Please note the registration will be process by Registry manually and we will notify you once process completed.
- No guarantee on the ownership of the domain name once you've make payment. This is due to no query is provided by Registry to check on the availability of domain name, therefore the domain that you submitted might have taken by someone else. If domain is available, you should be able to register the domain name under '1st come 1st serve' rule.
- We will notify you via email on whether you have successfully register the name(s). If domain name registration is not successful, we will refund the payment into your account.
- No documentary proof is required to register a Second- Level '.hk' domain name, except applications for domain name consisting of or containing a reference to words like 'bank', 'insurance' or 'assurance' will require additional documents issued by relevant authorities.

For .tv registrations:

- .tv is the country code top-level domain (ccTLD) for Tuvalu. It is commonly referred to as the "television" extension. The .tv registry is open to all individuals including small businesses and large corporations.
- The total length of the domain name must be no shorter than 3 characters and no longer than 63 characters.
- Registrar transfers are currently not available for .tv domains. This is a .tv registry limitation.
- Please check domain availability at <http://www.tv>.

For name.my registrations:

For Malaysian individual's personal use only.
